

NORTH MACEDONIA: LESSONS LEARNED FOR SYRIA

A STATEMENT BY AHMAD AL ASRAWI

My impressions about the European Center for Kurdish studies North Macedonia study trip from September 25 to 29, 2022.

First, there is incomplete similarity with respect to demographic reality between North Macedonia and Syria.

Second, the meetings that took place are very useful, especially during the process of developing the constitution for future Syria, which guarantees human rights.

Third, there is a possibility of taking the experience of management into governance, but it is incomplete in North Macedonia and the adoption of the principle of administrative decentralization that they use without reference to it.

Fourth, there is a complex issue about the use of many languages in North Macedonia that cannot be used in Syria.
